Final Tree:

Final Binary Search Tree

This document presents the final binary search tree (BST) after performing a series of node deletions. The BST maintains its properties, where each node has a left child with a smaller value and a right child with a larger value.

Deletion Algorithm

The following algorithm was used to delete nodes from the binary search tree: